This AAA Five Diamond resort has debuted this captivating alfresco lunch oasis on the beach with sweeping views. It reflects the guest-room redesign in blue, white and yellow from the isles of Capri and Santorini.

"Breeze Ocean Kitchen was built new from the ground up with close attention to special features, such as a GPS-controlled roof, to take utmost advantage of the natural environment," says Michael King, the resort's managing director. "The menu reflects this beautiful setting with bright global flavors and Florida favorites."

Kick back with twists on classic beachside libations ($14-$17), such as the Bahama Mama with cold-pressed.

Highlights include conch fritters ($12), three taco renditions, such as Cubano with Berkshire pork ($15), three selections of lettuce-cup fillings, such as chicken, coconut, curry and cashews ($15) and Maine lobster roll ($24).

"Fr-EAU-zen" desserts include Key lime pops enrobed in chocolate with creamy filling ($8) and spiked milkshakes ($13), such as the Cuba Libre.

Lunch is served daily until 5 p.m. with evening tapas and cocktails until 7 p.m. amid a chic setting with umbrella tables, lounge areas, fire pits and a bar under a trellis with string lights.

Valet parking is free.
